

Edinburgh the 3. of November, 1648.

W
Hereas, by Act of the Committee of Estates at Edinburgh the eighteenth of August last, it was appointed that the monethly Maintenance should be prorogate and continued as it was first laid on for the space of four moneths, viz. from the first of October last to the first of February next, 1649. And that a great part of the said Maintenance should be employed for entertaining of the Forces of the Second Levy, appointed to be put forth under the command of the Earl of Lanerk: And now the Committee of Estates, having considered how necessary it is that the monethly Maintenance be employed for payment, and entertaining of the Regiments and Troops of Foot and Horse appointed to be kept up within this Kingdom, for securing the peace thereof til the next ensuing Parliament; Have therefore appointed that the Maintenance for the moneths of October, November and December 1648. and January 1649. shall be employed for that use, notwithstanding of a former Act made for employing the said Maintenance for other uses: And Ordains the said four moneths Maintenance to be payed to Sir James Stewart, Generall Commis- sary of this Kingdom, and his Deputies at the times following; the Main- tenance for the moneth of October betwixt and the eighth day of November instant, and the Maintenance of the other three moneths betwixt and the tenth day of the said moneths; And that retention be of one and an half of each eight of Annuall Rent for the said four moneths, conform to the former Acts made thereanent: And Ordains thir presents to be published at the Market Crosse of Edinburgh, and other places needfull and also to be Printed.

Tho: Henderson.
